The Adult Center for Enrichment Offers An Educational “Supper Club” for Family Caregivers.

Greensboro, N.C. – Tuesday September 21st from 6:00pm-8:00pm, the Adult Center for Enrichment, will offer the first of four educational Supper Club seminars. This will be held at the Temple Emanuel, 1129 Jefferson Rd., Greensboro. Special guest speaker Dr. Michelle Haber will present “Challenging Behaviors in Alzheimer’s and Other Dementia Related Diseases”. This seminar will affirm that caring for a loved one with Alzheimer’s or other dementia related diseases can be difficult, especially if challenging behaviors are manifested as a result of the disease. Dr. Haber will provide practical tips and tools needed to cope with changing relationships within a caregiver’s home.

There is no charge for this training, and supper will be provided. Please let us know if you need care for your loved one. This program is funded in part with a grant from the BJH Foundation for Senior Services.

The Adult Center for Enrichment is a non- profit, United Way agency that serves frail and impaired adults, their families and the community through specialized adult day services, respite care, education and support.

To register, please contact Deborah Valiton-Carnish before September 14th, 2010 at 274-3559 or dcarnish@acecare.org. , space is limited.
